

N.H.S. Basketeers North York Champs, Both Senior, Junior

In a hard-fought tussle which was tied until late in the second half, Newmarket high school senior basketball squad defeated Richmond Hill 17-9 Tuesday night at Newmarket to take the North York championship.

The juniors, playing out time league schedule, kept in time with the seniors, defeating the Hill squad 30-25. The juniors had previously clinched the North York title with a 27-23 win over Aurora last Thursday. Playing the same day, Newmarket seniors and Aurora seniors battled it out to a 21-21 tie.

Tuesday saw the two senior squads neck and neck through the first half ending with a 6-6 tie. Eleven points to the Hill's three clinched the game in the second half. Cotton was top scorer for the seniors, setting the pace with nine points.

The local juniors made it 15 points each half although the Hill seemed to have the edge in the second half.

N.H.S. seniors (17): Beattie, Dales (2), R. McNern (2), Elphinstone (2), G. McNern (2), Edwards, Cotton (9), King.

N.H.S. juniors (30): Bovair (6), Brown (13), Ross (11), Spraxton, Walton, Ewing, Thoms.

Don Brown, Newmarket junior captain, spearheaded the juniors' win over Aurora with ten points, some of his baskets coming from difficult angles. Doug. Ross and Dan Bovair were others prominent in the Lockhart quintet. Jackie Monkman, with eight points, Ron Kyle and Bill Mundell battled hard for the Aurora lads who held the lead at one stage.

N.H.S. (27): Brown (10), Bovair (7), Spraxton (1), Ross (9), Walton, Ewing, Thoms.

A.H.S. (23): Monkman (8), Kyle (4), MacDonald (3), Lee, Urquhart, Andrews, Scott (1), Mundell (3), Doherty (2), Bahrey.

The senior game was a spirited contest. Aurora had beaten Newmarket in Newmarket previously and were favored to take the contest. Aurora held a 4-0 lead at one stage, but Newmarket soon got the range and tied the score, and from there on the battle sea-sawed all the way to the finish.

Hugh Cousins played an outstanding game getting ten points for Aurora, while Larry Cotton with eight points was the pick of the Newmarket team. Charlie Seath, Tom Dales, Bob McNern and Mickey McNaught were other leading lights in the game. Ab. Hulse handled the whistle in both contests.

N.H.S. (21): Edwards, Cotton (8), Dales (6), Beattie, Elphinstone, R. McNern (5), G. McNern (2), King.

A.H.S. (21): Seath (1), Bunn, Patrick (4), McNaught (6), Cousins (10), Murray.

DOLLAR, CENT APPROACH TO FARMING URGED

While agriculture is often referred to as "a way of life, it is still a business and must be treated on a dollars and cents basis," stated V. S. Milburn, Toronto, secretary of Ontario Federation of Agriculture at the annual meeting of the York County Federation at Richmond Hill on Tuesday. Referring to the acute farm help situation, he pointed out that labor can only be attracted by competitive wages made possible by fair and relative farm commodity prices which would also make possible the providing of comfortable houses for married help. To this end, the federation must engage economists to provide facts with which agriculture can confer with labor and industry to secure an understanding of each other's problems, he added.

Miss Lulu Row of the Women's Institute branch gave a brief summary of the findings of a survey made by her branch and other agricultural branches of 1,000 representative farm homes in ten counties. Eighty-four percent of the houses were occupied by the owners and over 60 percent had been built over 50 years ago and in most cases were too large for present needs. About 30 percent of the owners said that the first improvement they needed and wanted was a bath room. It came next on the want list.

Presided over by President Dalton Rumney, the meeting discussed the farm help situation including the responsibility of farmer to employer, the advisability of having agriculture brought under unemployment insurance and workmen's compensation to give more security to workers. Consideration was also given to forming a rural film circuit, the organizing of more farm forums and organizing hog producer committees in the county under the new hog marketing plan.

The following officers were re-elected: pres., Dalton Rumney, Gormley; first vice pres., Roland Keffer, Maple; second vice-pres., Chas. Hooper, Gormley, R. R. 2; sec-treas., W. J. Buchanan, Downsview; executive committee, S. B. Watson, Agincourt; D. E. McAllister, Richmond Hill; E. A. Buchanan, Unionville; Russell Rowntree, Woodbridge; Fred Wicks, Jr., Stouffville, R. R. 1; Wm. Pugsley, Sutton; Gordon Orr, Maple; Mrs. Paul Snider, Maple; Mrs. W. H. Wilmot, Sharon.

Newmarket, as district champs, were to meet Richmond Hill in a best two of three series but poor ice conditions forced the one-game test on artificial ice and "we were rather lost on it," one player said. Dales, Bishop and Brown scored for the locals.

Younger Comrades Feted By 1914-1918 Veterans

(Mount Albert)

To commemorate the closing of the activities of the Mount Albert Veterans' Association and to welcome home the veterans of this war, the 1914-1918 veterans entertained their wives, young veterans and ladies to a banquet given in the Community Hall March 6. One hundred and thirty sat down to a hot chicken supper which was catered to by the Women's Institute.

One of the most impressive moments of the evening came when the chairman of the gathering, Comrade Geo. Price, asked the audience to arise and stand in silence in memory of the fallen comrades of both wars. The hall lights were extinguished and the only glow was from the candles on the tables. During this period the Lament was played on the bagpipes by Comrade Bob Boags.

A toast by the chairman to the veterans of this war was next. He reminded them although the old association had ceased as such, the old veterans were 100 percent behind the new branch, of the legion and although the old boys wanted to take things easy from now on, they were always willing to help and give advice if needed.

He told them of the work done during the war years in raising funds to send cigarettes overseas and other veteran activities. The task of keeping the boys supplied largely fell on the shoulders of the secretary, George Calver.

The toast was replied to by John Oliver, Jr., president of

Order Freezes Camp, Negotiations Over Purchase Continue

"Negotiations are proceeding but nothing definite has been decided as far as the camp is concerned," Joseph Vale, chairman of the industrial committee of council, reported early this week.

Mr. Vale, in company with Frank Bowser, chairman of the roads and bridges committee, George Byers, chairman of the property committee, and J. L. Spillette, chairman of the finance committee, went to Ottawa late last week to discuss with federal authorities the possibility of the camp property being sold to Newmarket.

"One result of our conversation with federal authorities has been that a directive has been issued prohibiting any steps towards the disposal of the camp property until after the negotiations between the town and the federal authorities are over," said Mr. Vale.

While in Ottawa, the Newmarket delegation spoke to department of defence authorities, war assets corporation officials and since returning to Newmarket, have met with officials in Toronto.

Grass, Chimney Fires Keep Newmarket Firemen Busy

Newmarket fire brigade answered three calls this week, one for a chimney fire in East Gwillimbury and the other two grass fires.

Shortly after 1 p.m. Tuesday, Newmarket firemen extinguished a chimney fire in the south end of the Vaughan house, south of the cemetery on North Main St. It was the second call to the same building only the first time, the fire was in a chimney in the north end of the building.

Wednesday morning, a grass fire east of Newmarket threatened for a time the destruction of a barn and small shed. The fire started behind the nurses residence and swept towards the east and south across property recently bought for a veterans' housing development.

The firemen coupled their hoses to the hydrant on Grace St. and with the help of soldiers from the military camp, were able to keep the flames under control.

Wednesday afternoon, the firemen answered a call on Eagle St. where it was feared that a grass fire behind the home of J. A. Perks was getting out of control. By the time the firemen arrived, the flames had been subdued.

Several attempts to raise a truck which went through the ice near Roche's Point last week having failed, an attempt was being made early this week to raise the truck by means of pontoons.

Two Toronto men were in the truck when it went through the ice but both were thrown clear. The truck was towing a fishing house to shore.

Reports say the truck is in 16 feet of water about a mile from shore. Deep water between the truck and the shore make it impossible to drag the truck to shore.

To Quiz Households On Choice Of Recreation

The executive of the Newmarket Community Recreation Council, meeting Tuesday night in the council chambers over the firehall, approved a questionnaire which will be sent to every household in Newmarket. The purpose of the canvass is to find out what recreational activities are being enjoyed at present and what activities the citizens of Newmarket would like to see initiated.

The questionnaires will be picked up by volunteer workers who will be able to answer questions on the work of the council. The questionnaire, prepared by the program committee under the chairmanship of Fred L. Hall, besides its questions on activities, asks: "Are you in favor of an artificial ice plant being installed in the arena? Are you in favor of a community swimming pool? Are you in favor of a community hall? Would you like to see the Newmarket fall fair revived?"

Mrs. N. L. Mathews, chairman of the publicity committee, reported that the principals of the public schools had agreed to cooperate in an essay contest for the upper grades, and a scrapbook contest for the lower grades, on the subject of recreation.

A contest to design a suitable crest for the recreation council is planned for the high school. The executive was told of a cheque for $21.76, sent as a refund on recreation activities conducted by the town of Newmarket and the Lions club, last summer and winter until the end of the year, which was made out to the recreation council. The cheque was ordered deposited and the share of the Lions club handed over to the club.

HOUSING — A CRITICAL SHORTAGE

It is a human trait to discount that which has not been personally experienced just as it is human to expand an experience until it becomes exaggerated beyond belief. We hear doubt expressed as to just how short the food supply is in Europe. It seems hard to believe reports of mass hunger in our own abundant land. Yet did we undergo the suffering we read about, our protests would echo to the moon.

It's the same way with the current housing shortage. Most people recognize that more houses are needed but are sceptical of Frank Bowser's statement that 50 to 75 houses will be needed in Newmarket in the next year. Many honestly believe the chairman of the roads and bridges committee of the Newmarket town council is wrong in his expectations.

If Mr. Bowser has erred, he has done so on the conservative side. Not 50 to 75 houses as he suggests, but 100 to 150 houses are needed. Daily, the office of The Newmarket Era and Express receives enquiries about accommodation. An advertisement on the classified advertising page, offering for rent a five-room house in Newmarket, brought 27 letters of reply by Monday along with numerous telephone enquiries.

Adding to the already acute shortage is the number of weddings which have been solemnized. Most of these newly-wedded couples are on the market for houses. Servicemen, too, represent a large and growing market for houses. The wives of many have made-do during their husbands' absences in boarding houses or with their families. Now reunited, they seek homes where they can resume their lives together.

The Newmarket town council has been active, as have other municipal councils, in locating within their municipal limits new industries which spell growth and prosperity. But while it is easy to find building sites, homes for the employees and executive officers of these new firms are another matter. An industrial site loses value if there are no housing accommodations for employees. Each new industry represents an additional need for homes.

Biggest handicaps to improving the situation are lack of labor and building material. It seems to us that it is here that the government can best serve by encouraging production and the training of skilled labor in the building trades. To a certain extent, we understand, this is being done. From the look of things, however, a great deal more will be needed to meet the situation.

Another handicap in relieving the shortage is the high prices being demanded for houses. To a large extent, the prices are set in turn by the high price of material. In either case, however, the government should take steps to bring the cost of houses to within more reasonable limits. Nothing has appeared so inflationary as the purchase prices of houses.

In the meantime, the immediate alleviation of the housing shortage is in the hands of the municipalities and to a large extent, the hands of individual citizens. Anything which will provide housing accommodation, such as the purchase of the camp property, is of the first order in municipal business. Those citizens who have vacant rooms in their homes will also help by opening them, if only temporarily, to those who need them.

IT'S ASKING TOO MUCH

With the removal of subsidies on certain lines of canning produce, the hardship imposed on the farmer by rising costs of labor and production becomes more acute. Subsidies helped the farmer meet increased production costs and at the same time kept the price to the consumer down. The increase in production costs was absorbed through the whole population, not by the individual customer.

If subsidies are discontinued, the farmer must either ask a higher price for his product or discontinue his production. The effect subsidies have on production and costs can be seen in news reports in the Feb. 26 issue of the Rural Co-operator. In one story, milk producers are reported asking increased prices for milk because of the increased costs of production. Another story reports this explanation of the butter shortage by W. H. Wilmot, secretary of the Ontario Milk Producers' Association.

"The farmer shipping whole milk—milk from which cream has not been separated—to Toronto is paid $2.45 by the dairy, and receives a subsidy of 55 cents per hundred-weight, bringing his total to $3 per hundred."

"There is a subsidy of ten cents a pound on butter, but the milk used for making butter is paid for at $1.61 a hundred. Very little butter is being sent to England, but much of our butter, in Ontario, comes from areas where the farmer can sell to cheese factories or other milk-processing plants, where the milk is made into condensed or powdered milk."

"The price he receives for milk to be made into cheese, condensed milk or powdered milk is much higher than what he gets if the milk is to be made into butter. There is a subsidy on cheese, and consequently less milk is being offered to creameries and dairies for butter manufacture."

The two reports represent the dangerous alternatives which only subsidies can control. Either the price to the consumer increases, or else production decreases. Yet with this and many other examples before it, the federal government removes subsidies from canning produce.

Even more discouraging to the farmer is his resultant inability to plan his crop. Without subsidies, he cannot count on his market price and therefore is unable to say with certainty what his return will be. Without these facts, he is unable to determine how much he can invest in the crop. How much time he can afford to spend on it. How much extra help he is going to need. Yet the farmer is being called upon to produce his bumper crop this year in order to meet overseas needs. In the light of the government action, it is asking too much.

WHAT NEIGHBORS CAN DO

This news story appeared in a London, Ont., paper some months ago.

"Charlotte St. is situated in the midst of London's busiest industrial district. It houses 23 families, and 48 children. Some years ago, two vacant lots afforded some small place for play. Victory gardens pushed the children on to the street.

"Man-power shortages increased the problems of little children. Many mothers were employed for half-days, several undertook full-time jobs. The children had to fend for themselves after school, and throughout the long summer vacation. Most parents dreaded the summer holidays with its broken windows, trampled gardens, disgruntled residents, absentee parents, deprived and frustrated children which had to be faced. The neighboring school ground was forbidden territory, the streets dangerous, back yards too small and too hazardous for any vigorous play, especially softball.

"Mrs. X....., being elderly, didn't enjoy the romps and ravages of boys and girls; Mr. Y..... worked nights and didn't appreciate children when they played with their dog under his window. Parents strove to restrain their children as complaints grew in number, and tempers edged in the summer heat."

The news story tells how Mrs. Charles Parkinson, a resident of the street, tried to interest the parents of the children on the street in taking action towards finding the children a playground. All agreed it would be a good thing, but they couldn't see how it could be done. When school closed and nothing was done, Mrs. Parkinson canvassed the street and adjacent blocks asking "what mother wouldn't pay 25 cents a week toward a supervised playground?" In three days, she had collected approximately $25.

Next step was to obtain use of the nearby school grounds. She was told the school grounds would be opened if there was a supervisor. Selective service dug one up for her, a school teacher, who would undertake the job for the summer. The neighborhood was enthusiastic but dubious about the success of the project. Many felt that the novelty would wear off, the contributions would decrease after the first two or three weeks.

While Mrs. Parkinson persevered with her weekly canvass, the supervisor planned a program for sports for the older children, kindergarten activities for the young ones. Equipment was first lent, then given outright by neighbors. Neighborhood merchants helped. What had been a noisy street with all the makings of a juvenile delinquency problem, became an orderly, happy street. And all of it was accomplished through neighbors working together.

In Passing

This spring weather affects people in various ways. They blossom out in bright ties, or sporty shirts. Some go in for reconditioned fedoras. Women get their hair done, and children daily risk pneumonia wading in the streams. One aspect of this spring expansiveness we can do without. Angry householders have been calling us about a rash of window breaking. We know that it's quite a temptation not to throw stones at the windows of vacant buildings, but each broken pane of glass must be replaced sometime and besides, it constitutes willful damage of property, something the law discourages.

Add signs of spring: Charles Newton was sweeping Main St. Monday afternoon. Jack McCann saw a butterfly. If they keep it up, we'll begin to believe that spring is really here.

What Others Think

STATE CONTROL OF FARMING IN BRITAIN

(The Canadian Statesman)

It is now the law in Britain that farmers must carry out their operations according to the orders of the ministry of agriculture and local committees. As "Punch" recently said, the only danger of a low agricultural production in Britain this year is the shortage of paper with which officials of the department of agriculture can do their work.

This strict control of British agriculture by government officials is no mere imitation. Anyone who fails to farm in accordance with the public authorities may be dispossessed from his farm. This is socialism in action. It provides the answer to the argument over whether a socialist government in Canada would take farms away from the owners or not.

The Canadian type of political socialist is too smart to admit an intention to take the farms away from their owners for that would create too much opposition at election time. But, with the British socialist government's record in the matter, we can expect the same regulation of everything which farmers do with their farms if the socialists ever attain power at Ottawa.

After all, it does not seem to matter very much whether farmers can keep the title deeds to their farms or not, if they can be pushed off the farm at the will of some government official, because he does not like the way that they are farming.

On the other hand, how could a socialist government plan production and consumption in a country, without exactly such authority?

The simple fact is that there is no room for private operation of land under Socialism, and all the tricky attempts of all Socialists to deny this are exposed by the policy adopted by a socialist government in Britain.

OTTAWA LETTER

by
"Jack" Smith, M.P.
North York

The second peacetime session of Canada's 20th parliament was opened last Thursday in a setting of springlike weather but, in an atmosphere tense with concern on current international affairs and recent developments in the spy investigation. Corridors, lobbies, offices—wherever members met, buzzed with new rumors and speculation. Fred Rose, the member for Montreal-Cartier, has been arrested on serious charges and is out on $10,000 bail.

Rose, now 38 years old, was born in Poland, of Jewish parentage, and came to Canada at the age of 12. He is officially designated as a Labor-Progressive. A gifted linguist, he speaks seven languages. He was first elected to the House in a by-election in 1943, and was re-elected in 1945. He attended the opening on Thursday, and although rumor had long connected him with the spy case, he lightly laughed off any suggestion that he would be arrested.

The speech from the throne, read by the governor general, said many of the measures parliament would be asked to approve will be concerned with reconstruction and the establishing of an enduring peace. Measures will be introduced with the view of encouraging increased food production and increasing supplies to famine stricken countries. Parliament will be asked to ratify the $1,250,000 loan to Great Britain, and it likely will receive almost unanimous approval. It is a timely and generous loan to Britain, and is evidence of this country's appreciation of her heroic sacrifices in the war. More than that, however, it should be good business for Canada in a practical sense as well. In addition to being a generous gesture it is for ourselves a bit of economic pump-priming. To have prosperity we must export our products, but the big difficulty in cultivating our export market today is the impoverished economic conditions in many countries of the world. Our loan to Britain will be used to purchase Canadian products, and in this way will contribute to Canadian prosperity. Of world problems demanding immediate attention none is more important or more pressing than provision of food to those peoples facing acute shortages and in some regions wide-spread famine. The chance of a peaceful reconstruction of the world depends largely on food and the over-all shortage at the present time is very great.

The opening of a new session provides the opportunity of many pleasant re-unions, and the opening day is a continual round of handshakes, which is not confined to any group or party but takes in all the membership of the House. Whatever may develop of frayed nerves and short tempers the session always starts in the spirit of cordial goodwill and friendliness.

Speculation is that this session will run to the Easter recess, suspend for two weeks, and then run on into early June. Indications are that it will be an interesting session and in many ways exciting and dramatic.

Saturday, Ottawa bade farewell to Duke of Athlone and his charming consort, the Princess Alice. They were cheered on a colorful drive around the capital, and before leaving for the airport and the first lap of their journey home, his excellency laid a wreath on the war memorial. In the House Friday, Prime Minister King's tribute to the retiring governor general was heartily concurred in by leaders of all parties.

During the duration of the session all inquiries and mail should be addressed to me here in Ottawa. The address is J. E. Smith, M.P., Parliament Buildings, Ottawa.

Among other things the war years have taught us, is the use of expedients—things different from those to which we are accustomed to use. Can any of you remember the blessed, beautiful time when we could use butter in vegetables, butter in cake, butter in pastry, and all the butter we wanted on bread or toast or muffins? That there was such a time we know by experience, but now it is not expedient that we be allowed to use butter so freely. With a sigh of regret for those "good old days," one lets them go gladly, for there is the feeling that every pound of butter we do not get, goes to someone whose need is so infinitely greater than ours that there is no comparison. So, butter being the elusive product it is, we find it expedient to find ways and means to lessen our need of it, or to find substitutes which will not cause us to cast nostalgic glances backward.

There are so many good short-enings and fats—when we can get them—that one can make quite a creditable job of most things, but one vegetable I find allergic to anything but butter, is the tomato. It simply refuses substitutes. Usually, with a cautious look at my precious allowance, I shave off a bit and the tomatoes absorb it. You see, with stewed tomatoes, we like, besides pepper and salt, a little sugar, rolled cracker crumbs and butter.

We find, too, that it is expedient to use corn syrup, molasses and maple syrup as sugar substitutes, and usually they act very well, but I found that Johnny cake just wasn't having corn syrup in its make-up. It made it heavy and soggy, and if we wanted Johnny cake we had to cut off sugar some place else.

But I find that food is not the greatest nor the most important item into which expediency enters. That seems to be housing.

If we humans were like snails or turtles and carried our houses on our backs, it would save a heap of trouble. When we think of Europe where thousands—and saddest of all, many of them children—wander homeless, it makes one ashamed to sit in a warm, comfortable home, and yet we cannot transport our homes to the homeless, nor do much about it over there. In Canada, where there is also dire need of homes, we are rather helpless, too, except that we can back any legislation which will expedite the building of homes. Like many others, I think the lack of homes is the root of juvenile delinquency and broken up families. One room for a family of three or four is not home—it's an insult to the sanctity of the home life.

The other day, I was privileged to see how one young couple—the husband a returned veteran—solved the problem of a home. They couldn't get a house, need-

SHUR-GAIN FEED SERVICE
Conditions of agriculture abroad are in many instances appalling. Central Europe has been hardest hit. Austria's livestock population is down 40 percent in some sections, 60 percent in others. Vienna is near starving with an average daily diet of 900 calories. That's not much considering that you, as an average Canadian, probably consume about 3,000 calories each day.
The 1944-45 acreage under cultivation in the Ukraine was still about 30 percent below prewar. The official gazette of the Soviet People's Commissariat for Soviet collective farms, reports that two-thirds to three-quarters of the livestock in regions occupied by the Germans were lost.
These are simple facts that are of great importance to Canadian farmers. There is a tremendous demand for food products of all kinds in the world. You have a great market for the production of your lands and livestock.

131 Members Reported By Maple Cattle Breeders

The first annual meeting of the Maple Cattle Breeders' Association artificial unit was held at Maple on March 11 with over 100 farmers present to receive the encouraging reports of the officers and technician for the seven months of 1945 that the association operated. Organizing April 3 with 70 members, the club purchased and renovated a building, purchased four bulls, engaged a technician and equipment and had a barn meeting on June 5 before commencing services on June 6 with 92 members. By December 31 there were 121 members and six sons of Lonelm Texal Fayne in the barn. To date there are 131 paid up members.

In the seven months, nearly 800 cows were inseminated with the rate of conception about equal to that of natural breeding, comparing very favorably with results obtained in American clubs. After deductions for depreciation and in spite of heavy initial outlays, the balance sheet showed a small profit.

Following the presentation of the report of the secretary treasurer, J. M. McDonald, and the technician, Dr. C. R. Reeds, President G. W. Keffer gave an informative outline of the development of the club to date, pointing out that the activities of the club had been extended to farmers in the Newmarket and Keswick districts with gratifying success. Norman Porter, Thornhill, reported for the bull purchasing committee and Jas. Darlington for the building and property committee. The constitution of the association was amended to extend membership to the whole of York county where the necessary arrangements can be made.

Introduced by W. M. Cockburn, R. H. Graham of the Ontario livestock branch gave a brief address urging the members to assist in extending the membership as a means of reducing operating costs. He complimented the association on the type of organization they have set up and the efficiency of the officers and employees.

The directors and officers were re-elected as follows: pres., G. W. Keffer, Maple; vice pres., Fraser Gee, Gormley, R. R. 2; sec.-treas., J. M. McDonald, Maple; directors, Jas. Darlington, Maple, Norman Porter, Thornhill, and Russell Rowntree, Woodbridge.

WE ARE STILL HERE

By Golden Glow
Last Sunday was supposed to be the end of all things! No doubt you have heard in Southern Germany, they got the idea that the planet, Saturn, had "gone off on a tangent" or run wild or whatever way you want to describe getting off his course in his journey round the sun. Yes, Saturn was supposed to be streaking towards the earth at a terrific pace and when it hit us—well that would be the end of us, if there were any of us left after the scorching heat we would be subjected to, as it approached nearer and nearer.

However, here we are—so somebody miscalculated or else was it that someone was reading H. G. Wells' short story entitled The Star, for it describes in detail just such an occurrence, only the run-away planet was the star, Neptune. Just suppose we hunt out H. G. Wells' book of short stories entitled, Tales Of Space and Time, and read the one called The Star.

I don't recall all the details but from what I do remember it was exactly like this modern scare. There's nothing new under the sun as King Solomon said and I wouldn't mind betting that some wag read the short story, The Star, and worked out the new "hoax". Some of the people were so terrified that they committed suicide to save them from a worse fate later on.

Liquor Monopoly Alleged Menace
The only way to eliminate the monopolistic control of liquor by four large companies is for the government to take the whole business over, lock, stock and barrel, Rev. J. R. Mutchmor, general secretary of the department of evangelism and social service of the United Church, told members of the Runnymede Women's Christian Temperance Union.

"Discussing the September, 1944, resolution of the board of evangelism and social service endorsing the principle of nationalization of the beverage alcohol industry, he said that although a considerable quantity of alcoholic beverages was consumed in our grandfather's day, breweries, distillers and wineries were held in many hands and represented small private enterprise. "Many people are under the impression that this is still the situation, but it is not so," he said.

Seventy to 80 percent of the hard liquor production in the western hemisphere is in the hands of four great companies, two of them in Canada, and the control of the liquor industry of the world is on this side of the Atlantic, Dr. Mutchmor said. Under these conditions it is possible to make huge profits with the output of each worker equaling that of from five to six working in a good gold mine, he declared. Pressure can be placed upon governments and indications are that this had been done, while the traffic is promoted by advertising paid for by the public since it is deducted from the advertiser's 100 percent excess profit tax and has to be made up for by individual income taxes, he added.

"Betty and I were worried... we were urged to invest our savings, including my service gratuities, in what we thought might be a good business proposition. My bank manager showed me why it wasn't so good... maybe saved us from losing all we have!"

If you are an ex-serviceman, getting re-established in civilian life you will find your local Bank Manager a useful man to consult.

He is familiar with local business conditions and opportunities; he is glad to give helpful information to any veteran who comes to see him.

He knows the hopes and fears, joys and worries of small business men, wage-earners and salaried workers, because he has been talking to them over many years—considering their problems, lending them money, rendering them service in many ways. He'll be glad to do the same for you.

Why not talk to him at the first opportunity? Veterans all over Canada are saying: "Boy—am I glad I saw my Bank Manager!"

MAGISTRATE'S COURT TWO TRAFFIC CHARGES DISMISSED BY COURT

A charge of dangerous driving and one of careless driving against Alvin Rye were dismissed by Magistrate J. P. Pritchard in magistrate's court here Friday. The charges arose out of an accident on the third of East Gwillimbury Feb 10 when Marlene Campbell, 7, collided with a car and suffered a fractured skull.

The hearing of the charge had been postponed until the child had started on the road of recovery. Dr. J. Gordon Cook, who treated the child, said that it was impossible to say now whether or not there would be permanent injury as a result of the accident.

Roy Langford testified that he had parked his car on the west side of the road north of Queensville to let the injured child and two others out of his car. "I didn't see the accident," he said. "I was driving south and I parked the car on the west side of the highway to let the children out. I had started up the car and had gone about a car-length when I saw the car of the accused man. It was skidding on the road and I thought it was going to hit me. I stopped the car and his car clipped mine on the rear fender."

County Constable Ronald Watt testified that on investigating, he could see the track of Rye's car where it had swerved towards Langford's car then back to the side of the road. "It was cold and dry," he said. A centre part of the road was free of ice but there was ice on the sides of the road. I tested the brakes of the accused's car and found them good. His windshield was clear."

Rye said that he had been travelling north and as he approached the parked car, he saw one girl run out from behind it. "I put on the brakes and the car began to swerve towards the left. I released the brakes when I saw I was going to miss her. Just when I was on the car, the second girl stepped from behind the car and my car struck her. I was right on her when I saw her. I didn't have a chance to miss her." Walter Draper corroborated Rye's evidence. When questioned, accused said he had not been driving over 30 miles per hour.

James A. Webb, Bradford, was found guilty of not having sent in an income tax return from 1941-42 and was fined $25 or 30 days. A 16-year-old youth pleaded guilty to the theft of a pair of trousers and was remanded one week. A charge of receiving stolen goods against a second youth was dismissed for lack of evidence.

Jobs Follow Organization

But Employers and Workers Must Assist

During the war organization of manpower was made possible through co-operation of employers and workers.

This co-operation is no less necessary to assist in organizing the employment market during the present critical period.

Some manpower controls still remain. These are still law. They are aimed at assisting in organizing the employment market.

Remaining controls are designed to help employers and workers—and actually require only minor assistance from the public.

YOU ARE URGED TO COMPLY WITH THE FOUR CONTROLS WHICH REMAIN:

- 1—Employers MUST notify the National Employment Office of any need for workers, as soon as that need is known.
- 2—Where employers engage workers outside the National Employment Service they MUST notify the nearest NES Office within three days, that an employee has been engaged. (Form NSS 312 is provided for this purpose.)
- 3—Unemployed workers seeking employment MUST register with the National Employment Office if unemployed for seven consecutive days.
- 4—Generally speaking, any employer or employee MUST give seven days' notice to the other party of any intention to terminate employment. (Form NSS 120 is still required.) Exceptions may be learned from the nearest NES Office.

The partners to industry—employers and employees—should help the National Employment Service to promote a high level of employment by complying with these simple rules.

Only with public support can an employment service give full assistance to the community.

Make full use of the Local Office of the National Employment Service. It is there to serve your needs, and those of the entire Community.

Look To Future With Confidence McCulley Declares

Canadians should look to the future with confidence and not be upset unduly about world conditions, Headmaster Joseph McCulley of Pickering College told Aurora Lions at their Education Night last Thursday. "After six years of war and destruction, Great Britain and Europe are weak, physically, morally and spiritually. We must expect a period of disillusionment, suspicion and unrest," he declared. "We have great need to cling to our ideas and work to restore the economy of Europe. Unless Europe returns to normalcy, the results are bound to affect us." On his trip to Europe he had seen privations and hunger of the people, and it was difficult for Canadians, living in a land of plenty to imagine the conditions that existed, Mr. McCulley said. He scored Canadians who resented rationing, shortages of food materials and war time controls. These were vitally needed if we are to play our proper part in the world, he declared. Canada, he found, was held in high regard by reason of her war record and in supplying the sinews of war. He approved heartily the proposed loan to Great Britain by the Canadian government. Warning his audience not to be led astray by propaganda and hysteria, especially against our neighbor to the north, he thought Canada was in a splendid position to give leadership in reconstruction and the building of a peaceful world. He did not think war was imminent and held high hopes for an equitable solution of world problems. Canadian soldiers were now successfully being transformed to civilian life, and the Khaki College overseas had done a grand job in getting those interested started on an educational program, he stated. The service students were both deeply interested and keen students. "We must not lose the lessons taught us by war," he said. "There is great need to work and fight for peace, with the same whole hearted effort we used in waging war." If we did this he thought we would be carrying out our rightful place in world affairs. The job was not alone that of those placed in office, but the task of all of us, to see public opinion was formulated and truly expressed. Indifference and selfishness were the real enemies of world peace, he concluded. E. H. Stoltz moved a vote of thanks to Mr. McCulley. Introduced to the gathering by President Charles Copland were the male members of the Aurora public and high school staffs, who were congratulated on their efforts.

Lions Midgets Will Play Brockville-Whitby Victor

Aurora Lions midget O.M.H.A. team has been kept idle the past ten days because of lack of ice but according to Leonard Simmons, the local youngsters, one of the last four teams left in the running for the Ontario title, may play Saturday, and certainly will be in action early next week. The opponent for Aurora will be either Brockville or Whitby. These two teams are scheduled to play this evening in a sudden-death game at Oshawa arena. Whitby, it is understood, has guaranteed the easterners two-thirds of their expenses. In view of the ability to practice on artificial ice and the long trip for Brockville, Whitby is generally figured as the most likely opponent. The winner of the semi-final round meets either Thorold or Goderich in the finals, with Thorold favored to win. Wherever the local youngsters are scheduled to play, it is to be hoped a large crowd of fans will follow these gamecocks and give them their full support, vocally and financially.

O'BRIAN NAMED CADET CHIEF FOR ONTARIO

Air Commodore Geoffrey O'Brian, former master at St. Andrew's College, and well known in Aurora, has been appointed director of cadet training for Ontario. It has been announced by Premier George Drew.
Air Commodore O'Brian, a veteran of both wars, succeeds Maj.-Gen. C. F. Constantine, who has resigned. He has been on active service with the R.C.A.F. since 1939. He commanded the first unit of the commonwealth air training plan at Eglinton Hunt club, and was the first C.O. at Hagersville. He also commanded depots at Bornemouth, England, repat. depot at Ottawa, and Rockcliffe. He was awarded the C.B.E. in the King's New Year's List. A native of Toronto, he is a barrister by profession.

19 APPLY FOR JOB ON POLICE FORCE

Nineteen sealed applications have been received from applicants for the position of constable recently advertised for by the Aurora town council. The Aurora police committee of Mayor Ross Linton, Councillor A. N. Fisher and Deputy-Reeve A. A. Cook will deal with the matter next week and prepare a report for council. From all 16 appearances it looks as if 16 applications were filed by persons from outside town, and three at least were posted in Aurora.

CADET INSPECTIONS PLANNED FOR MAY

Cadet units affiliated with the Queen's York Rangers (First American) regiment in York county include East York C.I., Scarborough C.I., Weston Collegiate and Vocational school, Earl Haig C.I., Willowdale and Aurora high schools. Aurora was the first secondary school corps to be formally affiliated with the county reserve unit. While Aurora public school cadets are under the wing of the Queen's Yorks, the schools listed above come under the cadet training plan for the province of Ontario. Schomberg continuation school cadets have applied to military headquarters for affiliation.
St. Andrew's College cadets are affiliated with the 48th Highlanders, while Forest Hill cadets are affiliated with the Irish Regiment of Canada.
Cadet inspections for the district are now being set for May. The cadet motto is "Acer Asperport" (as the Maple, so the sapling).
Both Aurora high and public school cadets have taken advantage of the fine weather in recent days to get in some needed outside drill on the town streets.

WITH THE FORCES

Dr. C. R. Boulding has received word that his nephew, Capt. Herbert Wallace, R.C.A.M.C., who attended Aurora high school and is well known locally, has been promoted to the rank of major. Dr. Wallace, who enlisted for active service upon graduation, is now stationed at Ottawa.

PASS EXAMINATIONS

Misses Mary Adams, Ruth and Anne McRae, and Hugh McRae, pupils of Mrs. C. R. Boulding, were successful in passing their piano examinations at the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

WITH THE CHURCHES

Rev. John R. Huk, Russian Bible Institute, Toronto, and five Russian students presented a musical program and showed lantern slides at Aurora Gospel church on Sunday.
Close to 700 attended the rededication service on Sunday morning at Aurora United church. It was one of the largest congregations in the history of the church.
The W.H.O. class, Aurora United church, met on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Dunning.

FIRE BRIGADE PAYS TRIBUTE TO COMRADES

Aurora volunteer fire brigade honored their wives and three veteran members of the brigade on Thursday evening. Following dinner at a local restaurant, the party adjourned to the club-rooms in the old town hall for euchre.

Fire Chief Harry Jones, who has been on the force 27 years, presented pen and pencil sets to Chief Constable Fisher Dunham, William Rose and Ernest Eveleigh, who announced their retirement. Chief Dunham had been a member of the brigade for 37 years, while Mr. Rose and Mr. Eveleigh both had 22 years of service to their credit. The vacancies on the brigade have been filled by Cecil Holman, Tom Rank and Bill Hadfield, three former members who served overseas.
All three retiring members expressed their appreciation of the presentations but most of all for the friendships made and associations formed. Fire Chief Jones predicted they would be like retired fire horses, champing at the bit and ready to go every time an alarm sounded. Victor Jones, with 29 years of service, is now the veteran of the brigade, while Chief Jones, Lieut. Joseph Holman, Harry Squibb, Ken. Rose, Stewart Patrick all have over 25 years of fire fighting to their credit.
Euchre prize-winners were: Ladies, Mrs. Stewart Patrick, Mrs. Clarence Davis and Mrs. Fisher Dunham (Mrs. Davis also won the prize for lone hands); men, George Griffith, Charles Harman and Cecil Holman.

LEGIONNAIRES NAME ACTIVE COMMITTEES

Five committees are being struck by branch 385, Aurora, of the Canadian Legion. Committee chairmen named by the executive are: rehabilitation and veterans' affairs, Dr. C. R. Boulding; finance, Alfred Bousby; entertainment and sports, James Murray; club house, William Waite; membership, Gardner Lloyd.
All members of the branch will be appointed to act as members of these committees or to other committees yet to be formed.
Veterans who have not yet made application for membership should contact Gardner Lloyd or the secretary, T. A. M. Hulst. Next meeting will be held on Wednesday, April 3, in the Aurora high school, and it is expected at that time the branch charter will be presented by command officials.

Rose was employed by the T. Sisman Shoe Company. His trip to Canada was aboard the carrier, Striker.

County Levy Against Aurora Is One Mill Greater For 1946

Aurora's share of the county of York levy for 1946 is $7,702.37, according to figures received by Clerk A. C. Willis. This represents an increase over 1945 when Aurora paid to the county $5,874.26. The latter was within a few hundred dollars of the 1944 figure. The increase in the county levy represents to Aurora ratepayers approximately one mill of the Aurora tax rate.
The 1946 levy is made up of $4,581.11 for general county purposes, $823.13 for debentures, and $1,938.64 for road construction.

Increased grants to hospitals, passed unanimously by county council, and repairs and improvements to county roads which, because of lack of men and materials, were unable to be done in war years, are responsible for the increase according to Deputy-Reeve A. A. Cook.
Reeve A. V. Nolan and his council at Stouffville, like Aurora, find their share of the county levy to be increased approximately a mill this year.
While these two urban municipalities, and probably many others throughout the county find their county rate increased, the adjoining townships of King and Whitby find their 1946 county rates are down.

In Whitby township, Clerk John Crawford reports the 1946 county levy to be $15,829.01 as compared to $18,969.91 in 1945. This decrease represents an approximate decrease of 1.5 mills in the township general rate.
In King township, Clerk Harold Rose reports the 1946 county levy is $26,403.69 which is $3,094.50 less than the 1945 county levy of $29,498.19.
Both townships like Aurora and Stouffville, find their general purpose county levy to be up in 1946 for the same reason, but the overall decrease in the county levy for both townships is less this year because of the lesser amounts paid under the county apportionment for secondary school purposes. In Whitby township, the comparative figures in this regard are 1945, $9,902.12, and 1946, $3,659.61, while the King figures are proportionately the same.

Advocates of the creation of high school areas can point with some justification to these figures. While the urban municipalities have certain set costs to meet for secondary school purposes, the rural rate varies according to county apportionment, and government grants are largely said to be responsible for this decrease to the townships. It was argued in Aurora some weeks ago that under the high school area, so long as general building costs were shared by the area, urban rates would show a slight decrease, and rural rates would be no higher and would likely be lower.
Whether or not the increased county levy will mean an increased tax rate at either Aurora or Newmarket remains a problem for the council finance committees to deal with. The amount will in any case have to be absorbed.
King township council on Monday set a general rate of four mills, which passed on approximately one-half mill to the township taxpayers. Four mills does not of course represent the actual rate of the individual taxpayers for the county levy is in addition, as are taxes for school purposes in the local school sections.

DOWN THE CENTRE

By AB HULSE

No ice is the word from Les Beazer at Newmarket and Jimmy Goulding at Aurora and Ellis Pringle at Sutton is not expecting any either unless a miracle takes place. It's the same story all over and the artificial ice plants are reaping a neat harvest. Try and get play-off accommodation as the boys seek shelter to get their leagues settled. It's been the same story since 1943 and those old fashioned winters appear to be out-moded.

No mercantile play-offs, unfortunately, and one of the finest series ever in the district between Newmarket camp, Zephyr and the Hill Combines goes by the boards. A little hard on the boys at Newmarket who had their league over according to schedule but couldn't get the opposition on schedule. What a headache for a lot of us trying to settle arguments between bickering clubs, keep obligations and battle it out with the weatherman.

In the words of Capt. Bing Caswell, now on leave, "if we only had artificial ice, what a round robin series!" Aurora Lions club hockey officials had a potential championship club a week ago. Since then, no games and no practices and they'll be lucky to start off on the same footing again. Whitby kids and Thorold youngsters can at least find artificial ice close at hand for practice.

Brockville, Goderich and Aurora are at a distinct disadvantage. Aurora lost a junior B championship back in 1940 because of the same conditions. Jack Life, ace Newmarket winger and sprinter de luxe, coach of Newmarket juveniles and "one of the best", departed for depot and discharge at the weekend and the best wishes of the fans follow him.

Terry Bloechl of the Soo Blochis, one of the smartest individual players ever to show on district ice cushions, will be back in civvies at the Soo by the time you read this. Hopes to take a whirl at pro hockey next winter and should catch on. He was the outstanding forward in district mercantile this winter.

We were disappointed last Thursday when our pals at Newmarket camp failed to come through for the M.D. 2 hockey championships at Barrie. It would have been a fitting climax to the short but spectacular sports story of the Newmarket training centre—unequaled by any other centre in Canada—if the Caswell clan had won out. North Bay were the dark horses of the day and came through with two clever displays. In the morning, Newmarket, which included Charles "Hogey-Pogey" Shannon and Vipond of Whitby intermediates but lacked Boyer and Lutes, put the whammy on R.C.D.'s, the only team which had beaten them previously this year, by 9-1. At the same time the Bay boys led by Capt. "Frenchy" Valiquette, a teammate at Varsity of Bing Caswell, were bopping the Strathcona Horse 9-2. The evening game attracted a good house and after the camp had got off to a good start they faded badly and North Bay won out 11-6.

Jim Borthwick, who annexed the badman title of North York mercantile competition, went for three goals for Newmarket with Red Ingram getting two and Life the other. The Bay produced three players, Bonany, Regimbal and Stan Maxwell, who got three goals apiece. This fellow McDonald, who formerly played for Baltimore Clippers, played 130 minutes of hockey without a rest in either game and fairly scintillated from the defence. McDonald, Bonany and Regimbal play regularly with the North Bay intermediate N.O.H.A. entry, while Centremen Maxwell and Winger Zeppa both play for the North Bay junior N.O.H.A. team. The rest of the team is all northerners and plenty good. Bing thinks over a three-game series, Newmarket could have taken the title but there are no alibis forthcoming from the camp. Borthwick, who expects to stay in the army, has been transferred to Toronto, while come the end of April or a few days less it'll be a case of kiss the boys goodbye so far as Shannon, Caswell, Ingram, McNulty, Tiger Lee and all the rest are concerned.

Our thanks to the Aurora ordinance hockey club for the bid to its gala stag party last week at the Highlands Golf club and to Wes Allsop and the lads of the Centre Simcoe softball league for their unexpected presentation while we were in Barrie last Friday handling "the mike" at the winter carnival. The R.C.O. C. lads staged a peachy party which we'll remember for a long time and the committee in charge scored a touchdown in every particular. Last summer we had the job of being chief umpire of the Barrie and district softball circuit and being on pre-discharge leave, we had to take a rain check on their wind-up banquet. It warmed the heart to find the boys had a nifty wallet tucked away for us in place of a pair of glasses and a cup (what most players say most umpires need). We've been invited back to say "play ball" for the league opener come May and we'll be on hand if at all possible.

Those fellows up Barrie way are figuring on a strong northern group of at least four teams with two from Barrie and two from Borden and hope to see the revival of the York-Simcoe softball league with a southern circuit to provide inter-locking schedule and play-off opposition. Harry Couse, ye olde smoothie of Barrie Collegians fame, is expected to take the mound for the Barrie teams this spring.

Bradford softballers, who enjoyed a big year last season in the six-club loop won by Fennell's Corners, are already organized for the summer with Ted Gapp, Bradford fire chief, former lacrosse and hockey stalwart, as manager and Joseph Megani as coach. Wonder what Ace Yake and Teddy Bennett are cooking for the mushball menu around these parts? It's been pretty quiet the past few weeks but the balmy breezes have doubtless been doing their stuff and if they're not dreaming about softball, we're greatly surprised.

Jack Culverwell, for years the bulwark of the Sutton Green-shirts hockey team either as a forward or defenceman, is at it again and tonight he'll be in action with St. John Beavers, Maritime senior champs, in their Allen Cup tilt against Hamilton Tigers. Jack, who also performed with success for Aurora army, Ostranders and last year with Red Deer army, is known as "Iron-man Jack" down New Brunswick way and in the recent series which the Beavers took from Halifax navy, he was a standout both defensively and offensively. While Tigers should take the series, St. John is no pushover. If they get by that one there's still the Quebec winners barring the way to the finals.

Halifax navy had some well known faces in their line-up. Chief threat was that buzzy of district junior hockey, Ronnie Rowe, ex-Markham junior Rowe, who still is on the Maple Leafs reserve list, did the hat trick in one game. Bill Armstrong, who had a brief whirl with Aurora juniors and also played with Penetang juveniles, Oshawa and Marlboros and Navy juniors and seniors in recent years, centred Rowe's line. Al Shill, ex-Aurora Ordnance and one of that great Toronto hockey family, was another York county boy with the Halifax t.a.s. Rowe, in case you're wondering, is only 23 and weighs 160 pounds while Armstrong will be 22 this summer.

Remember Frank Grainger of the Hill? We refer to old

Hankus-Pankus who played baseball for both Aurora and the Hill for quite a few years and was also pretty fair at hockey and lacrosse. Hank, who has been engaged in the florist industry for a good many years, has taken Horace Greeley's advice about the west and is now located at Calgary with the Tyrell Flower Company. Just watch those roses grow on the prairies now.

Overseas, Bob Hacking, former Aurora junior defenceman and now a squadron leader with the R.C.A.F. and senior personnel officer, middle-aged it last month with an English lassie, Leading Wren Mary Little of Ambleside, Westmoreland. Another society item is the arrival in Bradford of the English wife of that box lacrosse wizard of Tri-County fame, Bruno Cavallo. Bruno was overseas three years and arrived back home last fall and his wife got to Bradford this month. The couple have been honored by the Bradford folk in recent weeks. Another benedict who sniffed the orange blossoms recently is Clarence James of hockey and box lacrosse fame, another overseas veteran. The lucky gal was Miss Alma Cross of Bradford.

Bill Paisley, who played some swell softball and baseball for Newmarket camp two years ago, was married last weekend to Miss Phyllis Marie Clifford of Toronto. Bill is now in attendance at Western University and last fall played intermediate rugby and this winter is playing intermediate basketball for Western U.

Sam Brookfield, who in pre-war days played some nifty soccer around Aurora and then, sensing war was coming, went back to England in 1938 to join the Royal Air Force with which he served until this year, has received his discharge and is now residing near Newmarket.

Wally Samanski, who was a standout for Whitby juniors in the district junior B group two years ago and last year was with Oshawa Generals, is performing at centre for Ottawa St. Pat's juniors, wearers of the Ottawa district junior crown. Samanski reported to Barrie Flyers last fall, went home for a weekend and failed to come back to Barrie.

"It's something you girls shouldn't laugh at"

"Mother won't tell me what it cost," said Elaine to Cousin Edna, who was hooking up the exquisite dress. "But it's within the budget, you may be sure. Trust mother for that."

"Budgets sound unromantic, especially on a day like this," Mother admitted. "But we could never have given Elaine such a wedding unless we had budgeted. It's something you girls shouldn't laugh at. Dad and I began budgeting on our wedding trip. We had to... and we just got home with a few cents margin."

"Isn't it an awful bother, though?"

"We'd be more bothered and worried without it. No, it's simple. First, we always set aside the money for Dad's life insurance; that means we have no worries about the future. Then we figure on so much a month for living expenses... and then!... with what's left we can be extravagant. That's the great thing... to feel when you're spending that the essentials and the future are taken care of. Then you can spend with an easy mind."

Budget for essentials first, remembering that one of the greatest essentials is future security... protection against adversity... and peace of mind in your old age. There can be no substitute for life insurance in any family budget.

Near you, wherever you are, is a neighbour in the life insurance business. Ask him for advice in planning your future. It is good citizenship to own life insurance.

Getting Off on the Right Foot

AN OPEN LETTER TO CANADA'S EX-FIGHTING MEN

You and your fellow servicemen have fought for the peace, freedom and happiness we now enjoy.

We, in common with all true Canadians, believe that you should receive your fair share — a goodly share — of the prosperity that could not be ours without the victory you have achieved. We believe that, unless our ex-fighting men as a whole reach a good standard of living, Canada cannot attain that full measure of the prosperity for which we all hope.

We, at the Bank of Montreal, are anxious to do all in our power to help every veteran find his particular niche in the new peace-time Canada, either in a job to his liking or in a business of his own that will afford him a full and prosperous life.

Reproduced in this advertisement are some thoughts from a booklet we have prepared to help veterans find their feet in civilian life. It is our hope that when you are struggling with the problem of starting afresh on "civvy street" the booklet may be very helpful to you.

Further, we extend a friendly invitation to you to drop in and chat things over with any one of our managers.

His knowledge of the present situation, local conditions, trends in business circles and the economic life of the community may be useful in the search for your niche. Perhaps he can offer helpful suggestions, sound advice, or a timely bank loan if you are thinking of branching out for yourself.

The booklet, "Getting Off on the Right Foot", is yours for the asking. Write, or see, your nearest B of M manager today.

TO THE EDITOR

The editor, The Newmarket Era and Express: Having had a lot to do with bringing the camp here in the first place, I am very interested in what will be done with it now that it is about to be vacated by the army.

I think the members of the town council are showing wisdom and foresight by taking steps to acquire possession of the entire camp so that they can control the whole situation.

When the soldiers leave, if the property is not properly looked after, the rats would take possession and spread disease and destruction over the whole east side of the town.

It will take some money, we know, but for the purchase price, we have secured a well situated subdivision with electricity, sewers, pavements, installed and paid for. I am not in favor of selling the buildings to speculators or contractors who will dispose of them in any way which will provide the most profit.

The housing situation could be eased immensely by selling these buildings separately to ambitious and thrifty young men who have a little money and are handy with hammer and saw. By purchasing one of these buildings and a vacant lot cheaply from town, a young man could make himself a home upon which there would be no mortgage, and Newmarket would have a thriving, healthy, subdivision paying taxes to the town.

What I have already said is not all. Today, I was forced to do an emergency operation in York County hospital. There was no vacant bed so the patient had to be left on the stretcher until he recovered sufficiently to be removed to his home. A large number of beds in the hospital are occupied by dear, old people who are not really sick but have no accommodation in their own homes. The military hospital would make a splendid convalescent hospital. It would relieve the present crowding at York County hospital and free beds for emergency and surgical cases.

As our town grows, by reason of the new factories, this situation will become more acute.

I would like to repeat what I have already said, namely, that the council is acting wisely by taking immediate steps to control a very important situation in the history of our town.

Yours truly,
S. J. Boyd, M.D.

Newmarket,
March 18, 1946.

Recalls Trip To Altar At 50th Wedding Anniversary

When Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Morton celebrated their golden wedding anniversary they had a big tableful of guests at noon and a different tableful for the evening meal. The noonday guests were their own family and some nieces and nephews, the younger generation. In the evening they had four of Mr. Morton's five brothers with their wives and his sister, Mrs. Angus King. For Mrs. Morton there was added pleasure in the presence of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Morton, Newmarket, who was her bridesmaid of 50 years ago.

Mr. Morton recalled driving across Lake Simcoe from Keswick to Lefroy, home of the bride, on March 7, 1894, for the wedding. It was a winter of considerable snow and, at the time of this drive, a thaw had been followed by freezing weather which left a heavy crust over the snow. With his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Ira Morton, he drove across the fields to reach the lakeshore. On the west side of the lake, which they reached toward noon, the bright March sun had softened the crust so that the horse broke through. Then the men had to walk, leading the horse the rest of the way to the bride's home.

One of Isaac Morton's brothers, Rev. Richard Morton, Lansing, was unable to be present because of illness in his family. But with the other brothers, William and Ernest, Newmarket; John A., Toronto; and Norman, Thornhill, and with his only sister, Mrs. King, it was a happy reunion for the couple. Mrs. Morton was well enough to join her guests at the table and in the living room.

During the evening the happy couple received a gift from their own folks. A number of brief speeches of felicitation were heard, to which Mr. Morton responded fittingly. Younger relatives and friends called during the evening to add their congratulations.

Money

The parents' aims in educating the school child regarding the value of money should include helping the child assume a desirable attitude pertaining to money and helping him establish desirable habits in its use.

A desirable attitude considers money as: 1. Medium of satisfaction; a way of acquiring things we need for pleasure, realizing there are limitations in amounts; 2. Cheerful sharing; in the family situation there should be a common income regulated by a budget. As soon as a child is old enough to understand, he is old enough to share in spending; 3. Money is for use; 4. Recognition that there are values that can't be bought with money. There are other ways of evaluating. Affection shouldn't be bought with money.

An undesirable attitude is that money is a measure for everything from paying for task to the status of neighbors; dictatorial, one person makes all the decisions.

To foster a desirable attitude, the child should have an income—a definite allowance—and his share to be used in a narrow field. He must not have as much money as he wants but must feel the pinch; so, his allowance must be smaller than his needs. Instead of 25 cents he should have 20 cents a week—his wants and what he has learned should determine his allowance. The child needs practice in managing money. With adequate early practice, by the age of 16 years, the child should be able to manage all the money that is spent on him.

An allowance is as essential as meals. There is a real need to train the child in money matters. It is wise not to let the child borrow for anything that disappears before he has a chance to pay back. Installments have to be managed carefully; it is better to train the child to save for a particular purpose. The child should only have to pay a certain percent of a large purchase. We want to avoid making beggars of children.

Saving should be in terms of something the child wants, not in terms of learning to hoard. Hoarding isn't conducive to giving—which is a creditable spirit. The child can only learn about giving by doing it and it is best to do it secretly. Children can be Santa Claus and give anonymously, thrilling others by putting them on the receiving end. We can all continue to believe in Santa Claus without being the least bit dishonest.

The following officers were elected: pres., Gordon McNern; vice-pres., Garth Wright; sec-treas., Vic Johnston; directors, Harry Walker and Keith Walton.

In the girls' group the following were elected: pres., Ruth Wilmut; vice pres., Irene Harper; sec., Madeline Hall.

TO PREACH HERE

Capt. Harry Worling, who is well known to many throughout this district, will make a visit to Newmarket next Sunday. Capt. Worling sailed for India ten years ago as a missionary under the Ceylon and India General Mission. After six years as a missionary and the war having broken out, Capt. Worling enlisted in the combative forces of the Indian army. He was taken prisoner by the Japanese at Singapore and for 43 months was held there in the prison camp. During this time he suffered an arm amputation.

Capt. Worling has just recently returned to Canada and will be preaching at the Christian church next Sunday.

Harvey Avison, former Newmarket camp all-round athlete, is on defence this season for City Taxi, current finalists in the Brantford city senior hockey league. Plumley, who was a defenceman with Brantford camp
three years ago, is a teammate.
Avison is also a member of the Brantford Y Grads basketball club which is the Central Ontario basketball winner in the intermediate section and will enter the O.B.A. playdowns.

Bert Life, former Newmarket camp track coach
and a pretty fair soccer player, now enrolled on a physical education course at Toronto Varsity, is training hard these days as a walker and expects to compete in some of the indoor meets as well as planning an active summer campaign. Thinking of the success of his army track teams, Bert is giving Varsity coach, Hec Phillips, a few pointers, too. Next fall, brother Jack Life, who expects to be out of the army by then,
will be enrolled on the same course. The Life brothers intend to make physical education their life work (no pun intended).

It's not very often you see a senior officer taking part in sports but at Camp Borden Lieut.-Col. Frankie White, D.S.O.,
of the Lord Strathcona Horse,
not only leads the cheering section for the Straths but also plays goal on the hockey team and he's plenty good. The Newmarket camp team has beaten
the Straths a couple of times
this year.

Howard Hemphill, better known to baseball fans as "Hop", has been signed by Toronto
Maple Leafs baseball club.
Young Hemphill, who is 17, is six foot one and weighs 175 pounds. Last year he played midget ball for Columbus Boys who eliminated the Newmarket entry in a hard fought series.
Hemphill will not go to Florida with the Toronto team but will report to Kingston Pines in May. Kingston will be a farm club for Toronto in the Canadian-American league and will be managed by burly Ben Lady who was the relief catcher for the Leafs last summer. Hemphill should make good in class C baseball but if he can make the grade, boys like Broughton, Stunden and Simmons who toiled
on the North York hilltops with success are only about a year away given the proper coaching. "Could be we will yet
see some North York kid following in Earl Cook's footsteps."

Newmarket Vets, hockey team which made such a creditable showing its first year in competition, issued a challenge to the whole wide world for an all-vets hockey championship.
President Bert Ward has received at least three answers and more may be expected. Sudbury, which was N.O.H.A. runner-up, like Barkis, is ready and willing to go. So is Port Dalhousie who played intermediate B in the Niagara district all winter and Crothers A.C. which is favored for the T.H.L. intermediate championship. That foursome would make a dandy one to start with. Also in the all-vets class are Oshawa Legionnaires; John's Grill and Post 22, New Toronto Legionnaires from the T.H.L.; Preston and Kitchener Legion teams, to name but a few. That a series to rival the best in O.H.A. could be arranged if the ice was available goes as a certainty. The possibilities of playing some games on artificial ice somewhere in Ontario are being explored but it doesn't look too promising at this stage.
Sudbury, Port Dalhousie and probably some of the others were under the impression that canal town (known as a hockey centre across Canada), had artificial ice. The Newmarket lads would have probably added Cas-sio, Shannon, Biocini and Life,
practically native sons by now,
and with this addition of playing strength, they could probably take most of them. Well, even if it doesn't work out this season, it's one of the better ideas produced by Les Beazer and if taken in hand early enough next year, can be worked out to a real climax. This year, the first one in peacetime for six seasons, was the one it would really have paid off in solid gold. Maybe Doc Dales and some other district municipal officers will have the solution for next season.

Aurora war vets, while not boasting a hockey team like the lads from Newmarket, feel they have a basketball team that will take some beating and if challenges are forthcoming, games will be arranged. Among the Aurora bucks who are ready and willing for action are Charlie Seath, Gar Doolittle, Bill
Thompson, Doug Fisher, Al
Thompson, Bill Griffiths, Blon-
die Rawlings, Nip Armstrong, Craig McKenzie, Anson Gilbert,
to name but a few. Any takers can direct communications for games to this corner.

Fifty-nine days, chums, until the running of the King's Plate at Woodbine and we are getting mighty good reports about the workouts of Norman Heise's good filly, Williegiv. Mr. Heise and trainer Percy Rickard have beaten the rest of the field by having Williegiv out for some brisk workouts and the Bunty Lawless-Lace Shawl offspring might just take the fancied

LAC Archie Bull is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bull, Jefferson, and the grandson of Mrs.
Rena Hamilton, Newmarket. He returned from overseas last summer and is now taking a medical course at London, Ont. Some months ago, a letter was published in this paper describing a visit made by LAC Bull to one of England's famous cathedrals.

VANDORE

Miss Marion van Nostrand came from Sudbury to be present at the funeral of her friend,
Miss Mabel Carr.

Mrs. J. A. Ledson, Toronto, attended the funeral and spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs.
H. A. Switzer.

Mr. Wesley Carr arrived by plane from Arcola, Sask., on Friday night to be here for his niece's funeral.

Mrs. Arnold Gardhouse, Thistleton, visited Mr. and Mrs.
Robert Carr on Friday afternoon.

south. Odds on Williegiv have dropped a bit in the winter books, and will do so more when the balmy breezes arrive.

Down in Miami, with a good many Canadians (Hi Archie, Hi Pres!) our old friend John Stuart has been doing a bit of relaxing and cogitating doubtless about his horses. Bonnie Liz, the main Stuart entry for the plate, who John claims, is a better filly than Williegiv, is wintering with the most of the Stuart horses at Hot Springs and working out at Oaklawn Park.
Rice Cake and Orenco, the two Stuart steeplechasers, and as good timberroppers as anywhere
right now, have been in Virginia since last fall in charge of Canada's last woman trainer.
The Stuart tartan should flash home in front more frequently this season.

Another race-horse owner, biggest money winner on the continent in 1945, and Woodbridge born, Elizabeth Arden (Mrs.
Elizabeth Graham), owner of the famous Maine Chance farms,
is having a difficult time deciding what horses to scratch for the Kentucky Derby. Star Pilot, Colony Boy, Knockdown and Lord Boswell, if owned by individual owners, would all be rated about equal on their showing as three-year-olds, but they're not owned individually, no sirree. Mrs. Graham owns the quartet and other good ones too. The latter two are picked by the experts although Star Pilot was the top money winner last year. You think you've got troubles bud, how about deciding that one.

Gone but not forgotten corner:
Aurora high school basketball-ers, perennial North York champions. Major Norm Johnson just didn't have the playing strength all along the line but they made it very close all the way. Oakville juniors, featuring Hank Galbraith, who started the season with Hill, Kemp, Savage and other juniors seen in these parts with Port Credit last winter.
Whitby led by Fred Harden took the round by one goal. Bolton juveniles, who lost out to the strong Powassan team. The conquerors of Bradford just failed to make up a five-goal deficit.
Powassan now goes into the C finals. Beeton juveniles dropped their series to Lynden in the O.R.I.A. series after a highly successful season.

Penetling in the intermediate B series lost out to Orillia by one goal. Tommy Stewart, former Newmarket camp star, was a casualty with a broken leg.
Jimmy O'Hearn, Buck Abbott
and other ex-Midland stars were going great guns for Penetang
but were just not good enough.
Orillia now meets Powassan in intermediates which feature among others, Earl Purdon, last year with the Newmarket camp and with Aurora Ordinance in the Aurora town league. Dan Vanclief, former Aurora junior player, later with Pelawawa Grenades and in army hockey overseas, is home in Canada again and Dan is winging them goal-wards for the northern Hawks, which in other years were great rivals of Sutton Greenshirts.
Barrie Colts, which had Fink
Tunstead and Harry Caradonna
of Newmarket in their line-up, bowed out to Toronto DeLaSalle in the junior B series. Both boys failed a bit to live up to their early season form but what stymied Barrie was coaching trouble and lack of a good goalie.
There were some good prospects around loose from the juvenile series which would have put the Colts over. Well, there's always another year and all these teams,
while licking their wounds now,
will soon be looking to the future.

VICTORIA BESTS ATOM
IN HIGH SCHOOL DEBATE

Betty Jennings and Mary Usher, representing Grade 10, won the debating championship
of Aurora high school on Friday night. Taking the affirmative side of "Resolved that civiliza-

10 representatives were able to convince the judges that Queen Victoria's era was to be preferred to the atomic age. Mary Komar and Colleen Gould represented the negative side and Grade 12. Judges were Lieut.-
Col. C. R. Boulding, Mrs. Bert
Wright and Principal J. H.

one of the highlights of the afternoon was a mock trial with John Youngs on trial for attending dances and classes with garlic on his breath. Charles Seath was judge, John Hamby
was the prosecutor, and Jim Mc-Donald, attorney for the defence.
Witnesses included Jeanne Mel-

In Memoriam

Cignolini—In loving memory of our dear brother and uncle, Ben Cignolini, who passed away March 22, 1945. One year has passed, dear brother, Since you were called away; How well do we remember That sad and weary day. You suffered much, you murmured not, We watched you day by day. We cried and prayed that your dear life Would not be taken away. Lovingly remembered by sister, Mary, brother-in-law, Jim, and nieces, Ida and Vivian.

Darrach—In loving memory of D. S. Darrach who passed away March 23, 1940. No one knows how much we miss you, No one knows the bitter pain We have suffered since we lost you, Life has never been the same. In our hearts your memory lingers sweetly tender, fond and true. There is not a day, dear dad, That we do not think of you. Ever remembered by wife and family.

Fairbairn—In loving memory of a dear husband, Wilmet B. Fairbairn, who left me March 23, 1943. When all is still and silent And sleep forsakes my eyes My thoughts are in the silent grave Where my dear husband lies. Lovingly remembered by his wife.

Johnson—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Flt. Sgt. Clifford Theodore Johnson, R.C.A.F., who lost his life in an air raid on March 22, 1945. Beautiful memories are all we have left Of one we loved dearly and shall never forget. His loving smile and happy face, Broken link we can never replace. Memories we treasure none can steal, Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, Only those who have lost are able to tell The pain in our hearts at not saying farewell. Always remembered by father, mother, brothers and sisters.

Lloyd—In loving memory of Harvey C. Lloyd, who passed away March 20, 1945. His memory is as dear today As in the hour he passed away. Ever remembered by his wife and family.

Pipher—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Lemon A. Pipher, who passed away March 24, 1944. The rolling stream of life rolls on But still the vacant chair Recalls the love, the voice, the smile Of the one who once sat there. Ever remembered by wife, Helen, daughters, Ruth, Edna and Jean, and sons, Wilfred and Barton.

Pipher—In loving memory of our dear father, Lemon A. Pipher, who passed away March 24, 1944. We cannot clasp your hand, father dear; Your face we cannot see, But let this little token Tell that we still remember thee. Ever remembered by daughter, Mary, son-in-law, Steve, and grandchildren, Shirley, Marion and Danny.

Sedore—In loving memory of a dear father and husband, Joel Sedore, who passed away March 15, 1944, in his 80th year. Those whom we love go out of sight But never out of mind; They are cherished in the hearts Of those they leave behind. Sadly missed by wife and children.

Willoughby—In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Mabel E. Willoughby, who passed away March 28, 1945. None knew her but to love her, None named her but in praise, For her, life abundant, For us, a guiding star. Till memory fades and life departs You live forever in our hearts. Father, in Thy gracious keeping Leave we now our loved one sleeping. Lovingly remembered by Verna and Carson, Shirley, Pauline and Charleen.

Willoughby—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mabel E. Willoughby, who passed away March 28, 1945. Dear mother, you are not forgotten, Though on earth you are no more, Still in memory you are with us As you always were before. Ever remembered by daughter, Muriel, and son-in-law, Harold.
